WOMEN AT KRUPP THE CITY'S SOCIAL GUN WORKS RIOT FOR END OF WAR See French War

LONDON, Oct. 2.- The home of the "Busy Bertlias" is in a state of ferment today following the riot led by women against the German govern-shall and the Secretary of State and

The incident was a result of Germany's refusal to state her peace terms, says an Amsterdam dispatch. Most of the women in the demonstration were employed in the Krupe gun works at Essen. Their demands are for more food and for peace. Before the police and military High Commissioner of France, as could restore order the women had broken the windows of the town hall and engaged in reneral disorder, semblage of diplomatic, official, and shouting for more provisions, for an end of the war, and the return of their men folk.

Several women were in their men to the superintendent of the Naval Academy.

Several women were in their from Annapolis to view the superintendent of the Naval Academy.

Drezwellsley FROCKS

Deserve Their Enviable Reputation

-Remember that at Kann's only in this city can you purchase these most desirable frocks. Remember, also, that every woman who has once worn a Drexwellsley frock is almost certain to ask for one of that make the second time she comes into our dress store.

The wonders that can be created from the staple serge have never shown to better advantage than when developed in these pretty styles.

The Nancy is one of the most popular of the many new styles.

Perhaps its dainty grace is the reason. It is made with an adjustable surplice front, tight fitting sleeves, and an airy grace all its own in the new aeroplane skirt. A wing shaped white silk collar adds a delightful charm to the dignity of the white silk vest.

There are many, many other models, and each deserving of a full description, but there is not room for it, and the best way to satisfy yourself is to come and choose for yourself.
